

PLANT INTELLIGENCE

The Institute for Cross-Disciplinary Engagement at Dartmouth presents "Plant Intelligence" with 2019 Pulitzer Prize winner for fiction Richard Powers and evolutionary ecologist Monica Gagliano for a truly mind-expanding conversation, moderated by ICE@Dartmouth Director Marcelo Gleiser, that is sure to reset the way you think about the nature of intelligence, plant behavior, and our place within Nature.

For details and registration, visit ICE.dartmouth.edu. This event is Free and Open to the Public.
